The Play's The Thing . . .

We present to you, our audience, the 1967 Syhiscan. This production combines many talents and much team work to give you a review of the happy and golden memories of this school year. As you follow the program you will recognize that study and fun are both the preparatory center and the stage on which the drama of Sylacauga High School is played. Through a variety of activities – sports, clubs, service and honor groups, classes, projects, jobs, and fun – the spirit and vitality of the school creates the action.

In this production the cast is also the audience, and school activities form the plot. The editor, sponsor, and entire journalism class hope this permanent record of memories will help you relive the drama of 1966-1967.

Dedication

Because of his good humor, friendliness, patience, and understanding, the Journalism Class of 1967 proudly dedicates their Sy-hiscan to Mr. Andrew Samuel Williams. Mr. Williams has been associated with Sylacauga High School both as a student and as a teacher. He has served as sponsor of the Junior Class and is presently serving as sponsor of the Student Council. His untiring efforts to make SHS the great school that it is have made him a favorite with the student body.

Faculty

MR. RUBEN H. PORCH

Mr. Ruben H. Porch, City Superintendent of Education, has dedicated himself to the progress of education. His interest in improving the educational facilities of all the Sylacauga schools deserves the gratitude of every citizen of the city.

MR. LOUIS F. MACHEN

Mr. Louis F. Machen, our new principal, shows the same enthusiasm for Sylacauga High School and its activities that he has previously shown as a faculty member here and as principal of Pinecrest. We welcome him back to SHS and look forward to working with him in the years to come.

In Memoriam

All of Sylacauga was deeply touched by the death of Cathy Dal Winning on November 12, 1966. Cathy was a popular member of the eighth grade class at Sylacauga High School. Her sweet smile and cheerful personality were like rays of sunshine. She will always be remembered in the hearts of all who knew her for her loyalty, enthusiasm, and her constant striving to do her best.
